Each Wizz Air entity is considered as individual data controller in the case of this data processing activity. For further information regarding the processing of your personal data you may contact Wizz Air's data protection officer at WADP@wizzair.com.

1. What types of personal data the data controller processes about you, for what purposes and on what legal bases?

Data controller processes your personal data for the below purpose:

Purpose of data processing	Types of processed personal data	Legal base of data processing
Concluding contract and keeping contact with the contractual partner of the respective Wizz Air entity which you represent both in the procurement process and in the frame of the contract or you are considered as a contact person in the provision of services	contact details (generally name, company e-mail address, company phone number, position, signature)	Legitimate interests pursued by the controller [Article 6 (1) f) of GDPR]

2. How long do we process your personal data?

In principle, Wizz Air is obliged to store the contract in which you represent the contractual partner as a contact person for 8 years for accounting purposes. In Hungary Section 169 of Act C of 2000 on Accounting provides for such mandatory retention period.

3. Who may have access to your personal data?

Within Wizz Air only employees with appropriate authorization may have access to your personal data on a "need-to-know" basis, e.g. the relevant personnel of accounting, legal and purchasing departments and the respective business department which concludes the contract. We may engage other persons, third parties as data processors to provide services to us depending on the nature of the contract (e.g. IT service providers). We may share your personal data with courts, government authorities or enforcement bodies such as regulatory authorities, upon their request and only as required by the applicable law or to protect our rights or the safety of our customers, staff and assets.

4. International data transfers

In the course of the procurement phase or either the provision of services Wizz Air may need to transfer your personal data to third countries outside the EEA/EU. If Wizz Air must transfer your data to third parties that are located outside the EEA/EU, then in such cases Wizz Air will ensure by way of entering into appropriate data transfer agreements based on Standard Contractual Clauses (2010/87/EU and/or 2004/915/EC) as referred to in Art. 46 (5) GDPR or other adequate means, that the personal data is subject to measures that provide an equivalent level of protection as provided by data privacy laws in the EU (such as the EU General Data Protection Regulation; GDPR), irrespective of the country to which it is transferred.

5. What rights you have relating to the Data Processing?

Corresponding to applicable data protection laws, you – based on particular circumstances – shall have the:

- (i) right to request access to your personal data;
- (ii) right to have your personal data rectified;
- (iii) right to have your personal data erased;
- (iv) right to restrict the processing of your personal data;
- (vi) right to object against the processing of personal data.

Moreover, if your personal data is processed based on our legitimate interest, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you for such purpose.

For the purposes set out in this privacy notice the controller does not apply decision-making based on automated data processing.

6. About your legal remedies
